

| Member state | Status since | Contribution (million CHF for 2017) | Contribution (fraction of total for 2017) | Contribution per capita ^[note 1] (CHF/person for 2017) |
|--|------------------------------|--|--|--|
|  Pakistan | 31 July 2015 ^[49] | 1.4 | % | |
|  Ukraine | 5 Oct 2016 ^[50] | 1.0 | % | |
|  India | 16 Jan 2017 ^[51] | 11.6 | % | |
|  Lithuania | 8 Jan 2018 ^[52] | | % | |
| Total Members, Candidates and Associates | | 1,142.1^[36] | 99.4% | |

1. Based on the population in 2017.

2. 12 founding members drafted the Convention for the Establishment of a European Organization for Nuclear Research which entered into force on 29 September 1954.^{[37][38]}

3. Yugoslavia left the organization in 1961.

4. Acceded members become CERN member states by ratifying the CERN convention.^[41]

5. Spain was previously a member state from 1961 to 1969

6. Additional contribution from Candidates for Accession and Associate Member States.^[41]